The Māori Land Court Level 2 Protocols Have Been Updated

Travelling between Alert Levels

17. No person should travel from a region that is at Level 3 or 4 of the Covid-19 Alert Level System in order to attend an in-person Court sitting being held in a Level 2 region, unless they have sought and been granted permission by the presiding Judge to do so.

18. Receiving notification of an in-person hearing that will be heard in a Level 2 region does not convey authority on any party to leave an Alert Level 3 or 4 region for the purposes of attending that hearing. Advice to this effect will be included in all notices distributed by the Court while different regions of the country are at Level 2 and Levels 3 or 4 of the Covid-19 Alert System.

19. Where any person residing in a region at Level 3 or 4, or who has recently travelled (for purposes other than transiting between regions) to an area at Level 3 or 4, is notified of an in-person hearing that will be held in a Level 2 region they should advise Court staff of this and discuss attendance using telephone- or video-conferencing instead of attending in person.

20. If any party (or their counsel) residing in a region at Level 3 or 4 seeks to travel to a Level 2 region in order to appear in person at a hearing rather than via telephone- or video-conferencing, they must file a memorandum with the presiding Judge seeking leave to do so. Any such application will be assessed and (if granted) managed in compliance with the cross-bench protocol on Cross-Alert Boundary Travel, which can be found on the Courts of NZ website at <https://www.courtsof nz.govt.nz/publications/announcements/covid-19/cross-alert-level-boundary-travel/>. Leave will only be granted to cross Alert Level boundaries in exceptional circumstances, where the presiding Judge is satisfied that (a) the party's participation in the hearing cannot be effectively achieved via telephone- or video-conferencing; and (b) that all of the public health requirements set out in the Cross-Alert Boundary Travel protocol can and will be met.
